Hospital May Cost Less Than Planned

Hospital planners were assured by an architect this week that a proposed Countryside Hospital can be built for $18,000 per bed and relieved some backers who feared much higher costs. It had been estimated previously that $20,000 per bed would be needed.

The assurance came from an architect who inquired of the possibility of designing the proposed structure and was asked the costs by George Heuer, president of the association.

MEANWHILE, OFFICERS of the hospital group were pleased with the response and enthusiasm shown by persons attending the meeting in Fox Lake on Sunday. A representative from almost every organization in Fox Lake was there, Heuer said.

Copies of the constitution of the hospital have been placed in the Fox Lake library for public scrutiny and other copies have been made available to organizations in the area.

The Fox Lake area still is the only place where organized effort is being shown in the hospital, the president said, but much individual support and enthusiasm has been shown from all other areas the hospital would serve.

"THERE HAVE BEEN many from Antioch who have called and offered encouragement," Heuer said, but he added that no organization yet has been contacted or heard from voluntarily.

The association still has not heard from the treasury department on approval of the charter and constitution but that is expected soon. A site question still has to be resolved but that is being handled by the Fox Lake backers.

Grass Fires Blaze During Past Week

Fire calls took an increase during the past week in Antioch with the rising of the temperatures and carelessness of residents in burning trash apparently accumulated over the winter.

Four grass fires took the fire eaters out and caused Chief Edgar Simonsen to issue a request to residents to use extra caution in burning refuse.

"IT IS VERY easy for the wind to blow a glowing ember to grass now getting drier," He pointed to the following fire calls to back up his statement:

March 22, a grass fire near the residence of Mrs. W. Ruggles of Lake Catherine; March 23 a fire at the rear of the Antioch Bowl bowling alley; March 24 a grass fire at Steltz Resort on Bluff Lake and March 24 a grass fire north of the Oakland Cemetery. Damage was slight in all cases but the potential for damage is large, he indicated.

Two other fires took the squad out last week: March 15 to Rosing Subdivision to a fire in the garage owned by Larry Dupre; and March 17 to Lagoona Subdivision to the house of Leo Bogard where interior fire resulted in damage of about $3,000.

'Dems Can't Embarrass Us', Speaker Tells GOP Men

At the first annual Republican Men's Club banquet Saturday night, 230 GOP followers heard Grenville Beardsley, Illinois Attorney General, say, "We don't have to be embarrassed before democrats because we have a good record in Illinois during the last four years." The banquet was held at Smart's Country House in Antioch.

Beardsley further stated that the future of the Republican party would depend more and more on the urban counties such as Lake. This is because there is a seeming migration of the southern people moving into Chicago and are voting Democratic.

HE WENT ON to say that "during the past four years the Republicans have done more to bring people honest and efficient government than anyone has done for a long time."

When the Republicans found "evil" in a high state office, the guilty person was prosecuted, Beardsley said. Although he did not mention him by name, he was obviously referring to Orville Hodge.

In connection with this, the Attorney General had high praise for Peter McGuire, defeated GOP candidate for Cook county sheriff in the 1958 election, for his work on the Hodge case. He went on to say Joyful over the season, the fashions and the occasion are (from left) Betty Mason, Lorraine Lindblad, Nancy Lindblad and Betty Amendola. The styles were provided by MariAnne's of Antioch.

Put Best Teachers In Slow Classes Or Fast? School Board Problem

Should the most experienced teachers handle the difficult students and put their advanced knowledge to work in helping them advance faster, or should they be assigned to the most advanced students?

That was the question members of the Antioch High School board wrestled with at last week's meeting as they reviewed the case of a teacher leaving the system this spring.

In favor of giving a slow class to every experienced teacher was Dr. Richard Carlucci who felt that the freshmen and slower students should receive all the specialized training the school has to offer. He suggested that every experienced instructor be given a low class and that no beginning teachers be placed in these classes.

DR. CARLUCCI, an advocate of unexcelled education at any cost, clashed with Principal Albert Dittman over the possibilities of putting a long-tenure teacher in the low classes.

Dittman noted that three experienced teachers prefer the upper and faster students and have been known to balk, to the point of quitting the system, when offered lower classes.

The problem revolves around the best chances of keeping the best teachers or losing them, Dittman explained. Part of his job was to attract the highest caliber of teacher to Antioch High School and attempt to keep them, he said.

ALTHOUGH RETIRING from the school board next month, Dr. Carlucci made this last regular meeting one of the most opinionated to date. He rebelled at the idea of teachers being able to in effect choose their classes.

"What I would like to do is give every student the most amount of training we can give him," Dr. Carlucci said.

The discussion resulted when a letter of resignation was read from Demica Willoughby who thanked the school board for the chance to learn a little more about teaching during the year but decried the lack of space for seating in one of her study halls. She, as a beginning teacher, also complained of having had three low and medium classes in English and not had the chance to work with a more advanced group.

THE SCHOOL BOARD in other business reviewed the salary schedules for all teachers in the system and approved a flat base increase of $400 for each instructor.

The median salary for teachers next year will be $5,650 with all increments added.

Another extension of fire deficiency improvements was asked by the board. The extension is the first requested since the state fire marshal submitted a list of 33 deficiencies in early January. Most of the directives of the fire marshal have been complied with but there are still some, including fire doors at each stair well which will cost thousands of dollars, which have not been done.

Five exit signs have been installed as part of the work, the board was told.

Ho-Hum; Spring Hits Merchant, Gives Away Gifts This Weekend

Spring comes to Antioch this weekend and there can be no doubt about it. One store owner's apartment has been hit so hard by the "springitis" that they do not want to sell, so are just giving things away.

The store is Economy TV and Appliances at 439 Lake St. Owners Fred Zeien and Don Masopust plan to open at 11 a.m. Saturday and make absolute giveaways to the first people in the store. They're giving away an electric fry pan, costume jewelry, and a number of other gifts.

THE REASON: they just want people to come in to say howdy. No purchase is required. Just come in, collect an absolutely free gift, and say hello.

Friendly fellows there at Economy TV.

Resort Owner Louis Kempf Dies Suddenly

Petite Lake resort owner, Louis C. Kempf, Sr., 59, died suddenly Monday morning as he was driving his automobile along Loon Lake Rd. south of Antioch.

A resident of the area saw Mr. Kempf's car stopped alongside the road and reported to the Antioch Rescue Squad that a man apparently ill at the scene. Squad members found the man dead, apparently of a heart attack.

MR. KEMPF WAS a resident of Beachwood Subdivision on Petite Lake for almost 30 years, moving here from Chicago. He was owner of the Beachwood Resort on the lake.

Born in Chicago Aug. 16, 1899, Mr. Kempf worked there as a taxi driver until he came to Antioch. He still retained his membership in the Taxi Cab Drivers' Union and was a member of the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan also.

He is survived by his widow, Mary Jane; a son, Louis C., Jr., Antioch; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Anna Zankl, Chicago; a brother Charles of Petite Lake and one grandson. His parents preceded him in death.

The funeral will be Thursday at 1:30 p.m. in the Strang Funeral Home, Antioch, with the Rev. Gerald Robinson, pastor of the Community Methodist Church in Lake Villa, officiating. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery, Chicago.

Plans Finalized For Salem Grade School Addition

Architects met with the Salem Graded School board Tuesday night to finalize plans for a $170,000 addition to the school which will provide four additional classrooms.

Residents of the school district approved the addition 88-72, in a vote taken at a board meeting last Wednesday.

THE NEW WING, fourth to the school since it was built, will extend to the west and provide a courtyard in the rear. Besides four classrooms, there will be an all-purpose room with lockers for boys and girls. The school does not have such facilities which can be used as a gymnasium at present.

Increased enrollments is the reason for the addition, a board member said. There are 360 pupils in school at present and one classroom has 40 pupils attending. A further increase in enrollment, attributed in part to Bong Air Base and part to normal growth, is expected.

Architect is Darold West and Associates, Genoa City.

Residents Pause At Start Of Spring To Remember Crucifixion, Resurrection

Attention will turn from spring fashions to Easter services this week-end as residents of the lake area flock to the churches to commemorate the crucifixion and resurrection of the Savior.

In song and sermon the worshippers will review the last days of the Lord, partake in Holy Communion and commemorate the rising and re-appearance of the Christ to His followers. It is perhaps the most solemn and yet most joyful part of the year for Christians throughout the world.

HIGHLIGHTS OF the observances at area churches include:

The 17-hour prayer vigil beginning Thursday night at 7 and Blessing of the Fire on Saturday evening at 8 signifying the triumph of light over darkness with the rising of the Lord. These services will be at St. Ignatius' Church of Antioch.

Traditional sunrise services in most Protestant churches and Masses in the Catholic churches will highlight Easter Sunday activity as Christians bring Holy week to a close.

Two of the busiest pastors will be Rev. Carroll Usher of the Wilmet and Salem Methodist churches who will make three round trips between Salem and Wilmet in conducting Communion, sunrise and breakfasts and Sunday worship services at the two churches.

The Rev. R. P. Otto of the Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church at Wilmet and the Faith Evangelical Lutheran church at Antioch, also will travel between his two churches.

ONE MINISTER will be missing from the Easter services. He is the Rev. Edmond J. Hood of St. Ignatius' Episcopal church of Antioch. He underwent emergency surgery in Waukegan last Sunday and will be hospitalized through the week-end. In his place will be ministers of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Grayslake, and the lay leader, Richard Landau.

The schedule for all churches is as follows:

Antioch Methodist Church
Maundy Thursday: Holy Communion at 8 p. m. in the sanctuary, administered by the Rev. Wallace Anderson.

Good Friday: Services in the sanctuary at 8 p. m. 'The Senior Choir will present Stainer's musical cantata, "The Crucifixion."

The Cherub Choir, the Chapel Choir and the High School Choir will sing at the 9 a. m. service and the Wesley Choir will replace the Cherub Choir at the 11 a. m. service. A trumpet trio will play at both services, also.

A Sure Sign Of Spring Noted, Vouches For All The Other Hints

It was about last Friday we believe, that spring came. Not officially, of course, for that did not come until 2:55 a.m. Saturday morning.

But the unofficial spring — when you're sure that winter has gone, is what we mean. There have been signs of winter's going for a few days:

—Ice melting and water running in rivers along the Antioch streets.

—Muddy fields as the thaw began penetrating the ground on farmland east of Trevor.

—Culverts beginning to carry water again in frozen-up Lindenhurst.

—Sun shining brightly on the die-hard ice fishermen on Petite Lake and warnings to keep away from the ice breakup where the current comes through near the south shore.

—Return of snow plows to the Silver Lake garage after emergency duty in northern Wisconsin.

—Antioch's weatherman marking down official temperatures of 60 degrees more than just occasionally.

—And believe it or not, Morris Pickus and his friends out on the golf links at the Salem Country Club.

All these are signs of some sort of the spring season approaching, but the sure tip-off came last Friday when the first bug of the year squished against the windshield as we were driving in Lake Villa.

Get Most From Education — Not Only Just What We Can Pay For

By Dr. Richard Carlucci
Retiring Member of Antioch HS Board

It is axiomatic that a community gets the kind of education that it wants. That is not to say, however, that the kind of education it gets is the kind of education that is needed for the children in this atomic age nor is it the kind of education necessarily that requires the adherence to standards almost dictated by this ever-changing world.

Education today is real news. Anything written today criticizing education in any way is sure to be carefully scrutinized by thousands of readers and argued pro and con by almost anyone in any given situation or walk of life. Now, if this idea of education is given such prominence in our life (and rightly so), it seems to me that the citizenry of any community should seriously take a look at their schools with the eye toward bettering the schools of their respective communities in relation to, in my opinion, just one thing: what is needed for our children, education-wise, to live in a world that is getting smaller, a world that is in turmoil, a world that is in desperate need of sound leadership and intelligent following?

Now, today is the time to cast aside the old beliefs that we offer only the type of education the community will pay for.

Russia today does not worry about the problem of increased taxation for better schools. They want more scientists, more technicians, professional and clerical type personnel to increase and develop their atheistic power over freedom loving people of the world. So they use their dictatorship in building more schools and putting into them every possible program to insure their power and goals.

We are free and will remain free only through our leadership now and from our well-trained youth in the future.

Only if all the thousands of small township school areas like Antioch throughout the country give, and give until it hurts, to education and offer every means to better equip the future leaders of our country will we remain powerful enough to impede and defeat world communism.

We cannot, and I mean cannot, go at a "snail's pace" in developing new schools and curriculums.

We need in our community increased school room for our high school, but make sure that when we develop their new area of education we demand that every possible school course will benefit not only those who will go into higher learning, but those who will be the future technicians, craftsmen, professional and clerical leaders in our community.

Remember in this age of turmoil the small city or hamlet is still the "backbone of our country". Give every youth in it whether he becomes scientist or laborer, every possible tool to produce to the highest degree for our country.

When the board of education and the volunteer citizen groups made up of township people come to you for your support in our new building program, give your freedom-loving vote of approval.

Tomorrow is too late to develop properly our leaders we need today.

I, myself am not interested with facts and figures that say we can have only the education in our system that we can afford. If we want to defeat Russia's strangle hold on freedom throughout the world, then all the thousands of Antioch Townships all over the nation should rise up and make sure that our youth will be given every possible opportunity to be better educated to lead our nation tomorrow.

My term in the school board is over and I now become again a citizen of the community, but as an individual who has at first hand fought communism in Korea, I will strongly support and urge not only more school room, but most important, a hall of learning that will make future graduates of Antioch more equipped to help lead our community and country.

Printing Names of Juvenile Law-Breakers Not Easy Problem

An Illinois legislator-publisher told a University of Illinois audience that the question of printing names of teen-age law violators has no "pat and easy" answers.

Rep. Paul Simon (D-Troy) who has interests in the Troy Tribune, Carverville Herald and Metamora Herald spoke at the Illinois Conference on Probation and Parole Problems conducted by the U. of I. Division of University Extension and State Probation and Parole Officers Association of Illinois. Simon said the problem is a "delicate one."

"SITUATIONS VARY," he said. "The needs of the individual involved in law violation and the needs of the community should be the two guide lines."

He said his newspapers follow a policy of not publishing names of juvenile offenders unless a major crime is involved or unless the person involved is a repeated offender.

"We think the young people can be helped more by omission of their names rather than by mentioning them."

A&P Officially Launches 100th Birthday

The nation's largest food chain formally launched its 100th birthday anniversary program in the Midwest this week with the dedication Tuesday in Chicago of a wall-mounted medallion honoring the founder and his two sons.

Top officials of the Middle Western Division of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., including H. Wayne Carver, president, and Mark E. Pierce, vice president, both of Chicago, participated in the unveiling ceremony.

ALTHOUGH THE company has featured A & P's centennial theme of "Thank you, America," since the beginning of the year, the dedication ceremony officially set in motion the 100th anniversary celebration in the Midwest.

In his dedication talk, Carver paid tribute to the founder, George H. Hartford, and to his sons, George L. Hartford and John A. Hartford, for the sound policies of public service which led to the growth of the company from a single store to its present position as the nation's leading food retailer.

"We are particularly grateful for their vision and foresight which resulted in the early introduction of A & P into this area and the sound development of operations here," Carver said.

"A & P first moved into the west when the company was only 12 years old, founding its first store in Chicago immediately after the great fire of 1871. Since then it has shared in the growth of the Midwest. We are grateful to the generations of consumers whose patronage has established us as a Midwestern institution and we plan through our merchandising events this year to express our appreciation to these consumers."

Objects To Loose Cats, Dogs

I wonder if you could put this item in your paper which I would very much like my neighbors to read in regard to their pets.

My neighbor and I have dogs tip our garbage cans and get the garbage out, then I have to pick up the garbage on my lovely front lawn. We moved here in July and I have this trouble all the time. It seems that all the cats and dogs are left loose to bother the neighbors.

It gets very tiresome to pick up garbage and to have the dogs come to do their business in my yard.

I HAVE BEEN feeding the wild birds, which was a pleasure for me to have them around—it seems people like cats as pets but don't have any consideration for their neighbors who don't want them around their property. I have a cat here that's very persistent. She keeps coming in whenever we open the door and she's hanging around climbing over window sills, aiming for the wild birds. There are two birds chewed up in my neighbor's yard.

Cats should be tied up like dogs when they are out even at night. Why should I be bothered with a cat when I come out at night and she gets in my house and have to be bothered getting her out?

I love animals. I am not a grouch but I keep things nice and want them so. I had animals, also a great Dane and never had trouble once with neighbors. I took her out on a leash and I wish my neighbors would be more kind and considerate of me also.

Put my name in, please.

"Comfort's fine, Nancy, but we've got to consider savings, too. And I've found just the car for that!"

"But the car I've found is so easy to get in and out of . . . and so comfy to sit in."

"Yes, but my car will save us as much as $1.00 on every tankful of gas because it uses regular. How about that?"

"Well, that's nice, but what about my frilly hats? We'll have hat room not just head room in my car. And you're no shorty, either . . . you'd bump your head in a lot of those new cars."

"Not in this one. And it only needs oil changes each 4000 miles. Its muffler is aluminized to normally last twice as long, too."

"In the car I want, everybody enjoys a soft comfortable seat . . . even the folks in the middle! This car's built just right for us . . . and besides, I think it's cute."

10³/₄ Year-Old Antioch Girl Wins 'Tom Thumb' Movie Coloring Contest

An Antioch girl, 10³/₄-year-old Sandee Pedersen, Rt. 2, was chosen winner of 12 free passes to the Antioch Theatre this week on the basis of her coloring of a picture in last week's Antioch News.

SECOND PLACE winner was Dawn Tinker, 8-year-old, Rt. 4, Antioch, whose entry was chosen because of its originality and use of bright colors. She received six free passes to the theatre.

The entry colored by Dolores Anderson, 10, Rt. 1, Antioch, was picked by judges for third place and three free passes to the Antioch Theatre. All three winning entries will be on display in The Antioch News windows.

Temperature Rises, Announces Real Spring

Temperatures hit a high of 74 degrees here Monday to officially proclaim the arrival of spring.

While nights still were chilly with below freezing readings, the weather bureau predicted a general warming by the weekend and it appeared that Easter may be sunny.

Look for bright Easter fashions on the street if the temperature continues to hold at present levels, observers advised.

Salem Officials Silent on City, Legal Ruling

Officials of Salem Township became silent this week over prospects of the Salem city question even though they received a ruling from the state attorney general on the proposal. What that ruling was could not be obtained at press time.

A meeting was held at the home of Richard Roselius, at Silver Lake Tuesday night to draw up a public statement but Mrs. Roselius was instructed to say that there would be no statement when contacted Wednesday morning.

OTHERS PRESENT at the meeting: Earl Elmers, township chairman, and Gilbert Elselder and Richard Nuytens, committee members appointed to look into the facts of the plan, also could not be contacted.

Elfers, who first issued a statement on the proposal to incorporate Salem township as a fourth class city, has admitted in recent weeks that the plan seemed to have less merit than he thought. It appeared that several early backers were becoming discouraged with the plan also.

However, a public meeting at Salem High School was planned to present the facts to the public to see if there was enough interest for a referendum on the question.

Elfers had asked the committee to hold up planning until he received a ruling from the attorney general on a question encompassing the entire plan.

Loyalty, Desire Learned In Athletics Can Help Beat Delinquency: Parseghian

Loyalty and desire are the two most important qualities an athlete can have on the squad or in life, Coach Ara Parseghian of Northwestern University told the athletes of Antioch Township High School Monday.

He placed loyalty first and cited the good carry-over value into life to the boys. "And when do we need loyalty more than today with the threat of aggression?" he said.

Desire is that quality which makes a C or D player do A and B work in the classroom, on the athletic field or in any of life's endeavors, the noted coach added.

"DON'T WAIT TOO long to do your best," he admonished the boys. He advised them to begin when they are freshmen to measure up to their potential and when they are seniors the work will become easier and their entire life will be more profitable.

The Wildcat coach was featured speaker of the annual Athletic Banquet put on for the athletes and their fathers by the Antioch Lions Club. More than 200 members and guests attended the event and saw Don Pyles, football fullback, and Jerry Dahlman, basketball forward win the Outstanding Athlete trophies. Their names will be inscribed on the memorials and be placed in the school trophy case. Dahlman also was presented the Lang Memorial trophy for free throws on this year's basketball team. His .773 average was cited as being tops in the league.

THE VARSITY AND frosh-soph cheerleaders also were guests at the dinner, were introduced individually and noted that the Antioch group was the first to place every day in the state cheerleading conference.

Trophy, $100 to Winner from 128 House Keglers

Local bowlers will begin lining up this weekend for the big Antioch News bowling tournament, to be held at The Antioch Bowl soon.

Top money in the tourney is $100 and a handsome trophy, but everybody after the first round will be a prize winner. Entry fee is $5.

THE TOURNAMENT, being held in conjunction with The Antioch News and the Antioch Bowl, will be directed by Jack Sampayo, co-owner of the local lanes.

The prize list is based on an entry total of 128 keggers who roll in the local alley. Their ABC average will be used in computing their 75 percent handicap on the basis of composite averages.

The tournament will begin April 18 when pairings are made between the 128 keggers. Immediately 64 will be eliminated, and from that time on, bowlers will begin winning money. The first round must be completed by about May 1.

THEN 32 WINNERS will emerge from second round play and losers will get $5 each. Sixteen winners will survive in the third round with losers getting $7.50 each. The 16 winners will playoff in the fourth round to give the tournament's top eight bowlers. Losers here will receive $10 each.

10 Lettermen Class of 64-Man Track Hopefuls at Antioch HS

Antioch's track squad will be up among the leaders in the conference this year and should show weakness only in the broad jump and hurdles. Most other positions are at least one deep.

A 14-MEET season schedule with only two meets at home has been set up this year including the state finals and the Northwest Conference meet. In the conference, Coach Walther expects Grayslake and Lake Forest to be the teams to beat.

Besides Dressel, the coach is counting on two other seniors, Chris Davis, discus, who went to the state meet last year, and Vince Nausada in the high jump and hurdles. Both are lettermen.

The remaining lettermen are: Dick Prange, pole vault and hurdles; Tom Burda, high and low hurdles; Walt Rosquist, discus and shot; Wes Merryman, discus and shot; Ken Truelson, dash; Don Eggleston, hurdles and high jump, and George Green, 440 and 220.

2 Antioch Coeds On College Committee

Two Antioch coeds are among 120 students selected to attend the work committee try-out school at Blackburn College in Carlinville, Ill. Since 1913 the Blackburn physical plant has been completely planned, directed and executed by the students under the leadership of the student work committee.

The Antioch girls are Antoinette Nering and Mary Louise Bushing.

THE PURPOSE of the work school, held for one week, is to give instruction to those students who may be next year's student managers. The work school is conducted by retiring student work managers. Invitation to work school is based on general student body nominations, outstanding participation in the work program, academic standing, and extra-curricular participation.

From the 120 invited to the school, 36 will be chosen for try-outs, each assuming the selected position for one week. Twelve of the 36 will be next year's managers.

laws were voted on and accepted by the membership, and further discussion was had on the idea of a field trip to Springfield for the eighth grade class this spring.

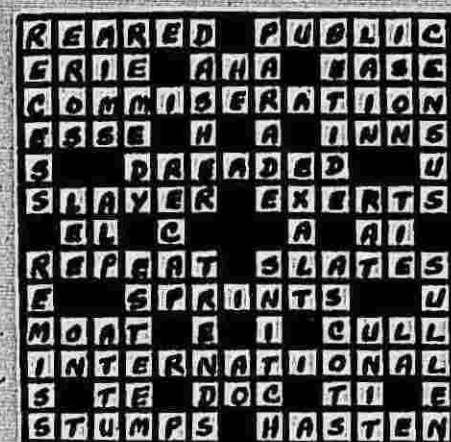

Refreshments were served by the Third grade room mothers with Mrs. Amy Hart in charge. While they were being served a movie was shown to members, all about the Scout Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan.

ORIGIN OF THE HULA

Early American missionaries forced the Hawaiians to give up the hula because they thought it was immoral, but the dance originally was a religious ritual. The hula was part of the ceremonial rites for the ancient goddess of the woods, Laka.

FL Hills Joins Other Residents In Zone Protest

Residents in Fox Lake Hills, East Shore Gardens, and Stratton's Second Subdivision attended the meeting of the Zoning Board on March 21 to voice their objection to the petition of Howard B. and Marilyn Fogelstad and Cities Service Oil Company to rezone the 6 acres located at the intersection of Grand (Route 59) and Monville from Farming to B-1 Business District.

Robert F. Wagner, President of the Fox Lake Hills Property Owners Assn., presented a written petition with more than 100 signatures on behalf of the residents in Fox Lake Hills. He also submitted pictures of the road to substantiate the claims of the residents that the property was on a dangerous curve and therefore not the ideal location for any commercial venture.

MRS. EDGAR BRAYNARD, secretary of the East Shore Gardens Property Owners Assn., presented the petition of the residents in her subdivision. She also voiced an emphatic denial that the re-zoning would be beneficial or increase property values as claimed by the petitioners.

Major Hill, president of the Stratton Assn., presented the petition on behalf of the residents in his subdivision and Stratton's Second Subdivision and he also stated that the residents in his area felt that a re-zoning would be detrimental in all respects.

Mrs. Daniel Werhan also voiced her objection, stating that her property was located on the highway and that there had been innumerable accidents on that particular stretch of road.

The consensus of opinion of all area residents present was that there was no need for a gas station or other business venture at that particular intersection and that they resented having non-resident "experts," not familiar with the

8 Area Schools Join Fund Drive For WTTW, Ch. 11

Eight schools in the Antioch area are getting behind the drive to raise funds for WTTW, Channel 11, Chicago's educational television station. The drive ends next week.

Superintendents and principals in hundreds of schools have offered co-operation to help Channel 11 meet its 1959-60 budget of $760,000. The in-school drives are following closely after highly successful door-to-door campaigns in Chicago and Indiana communities.

THE AREA SCHOOLS include Emmons School, Channel Lake School and Grass Lake School, all Antioch; Big Hollow School, Inglewood; Lotus School, Spring Grove; Millburn School, Millburn; Russell School and the Hickory School.

Help of the schools will make possible extension of available educational opportunities for young people and adults outside school facilities as well as during a part of the scheduled school day says Dr. John W. Taylor, executive director of WTTW.

George Diamond Slates $500,000 Restaurant

George Diamond, owner of the George Diamond Country Club at Highway 59-A and Grass Lake Road, Antioch, has posted notice (an open letter-to-the-public sign) in Chicago of his biggest restaurant venture to date: A $500,000 showplace called George Diamond Heart of the Prime Rib. It will be located in Chicago's downtown area at 11th and Wabash and should open about May 1.

Boosting Chicago's reputation as the beef capital of the world, the new restaurant will feature heart-of-the-rib dinners. Cooking will be done by special high-heat infra-red methods developed by chef Diamond.

DIAMOND ALSO operates the national chain of George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak Houses, one of which is part of his Antioch country club. The others are located in Chicago, Ill., Milwaukee, Wis., and Palm Springs, Calif. Last summer Diamond announced extensive plans to develop his country club property into a major recreational center at a cost in excess of $3,000,000. Development plans call for the relocation of the present 18-hole golf course and the construction of a 200-unit hotel, a theatre, an archery range, a year-round skating rink, a trap-and-skeet layout and improved boating and fishing facilities. Swimming pools, a stable and a riding area have already been added.

Plain talk to the man who thinks "all cars are built alike today"

J. EMMET JUDGE

"The one thing we know car buyers want above all in an automobile is quality. Yet many people assume that all cars today are pretty much the same in this respect.

This is far from being the case. I can name at least 30 basic differences in the design of our '59 Mercury. Naturally, we feel these differences make Mercury a better car. For example:

EXTRA STRENGTH STARTS WITH THE FRAME
The backbone of every Mercury is the frame. We use a heavy box-type construction—the heaviest in the industry. Competitors use frames that are up to 125 pounds lighter.

WE BUILD QUALITY YOU CAN SEE
Compare the way Mercury builds engine hoods. Most competitive cars use what is known as a single-panel construction. This type of hood can be twisted and turned with the slightest pressure—often flutters and vibrates when the car is in motion. At Mercury, on the other hand, we use a double-panel construction—two layers of steel with the insulation sandwiched in between. Not only is Mercury's hood more rigid, but it looks better.

YOU FEEL THE QUALITY WITH EVERY STOP...
Mercury brakes are the largest in the field—with up to 22% more brake lining than competitive cars. And only Mercury in its field has brakes that adjust themselves mechanically. You save money by eliminating periodic adjustments. And you are safer because Mercury brakes stay properly adjusted for the life of the linings.

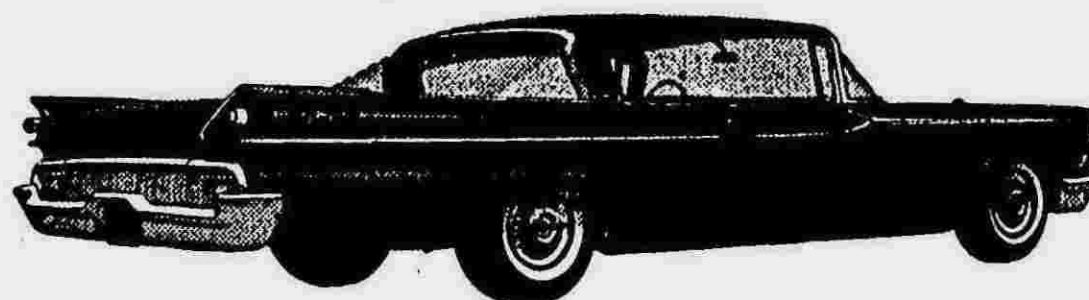

...AND EVERY TIME YOU TAKE THE WHEEL
All 1959 Mercurys have a flexible coupling installed in the steering system.

This acts as an insulator—absorbs road shocks that would otherwise travel up to the steering wheel. Mercury, unlike some cars, gives you this with either manual or power steering.

WE HAVE PLENTY OF PROOF THAT THIS IS THE BEST-BUILT CAR IN AMERICA TODAY

We know it is the greatest Mercury ever designed and built. Never in Mercury's 20-year history have we had so much value in the product itself. Mercury has advantages everywhere over competition. The four described on this page are only typical. In future messages I'll tell you about dozens more—in styling, comfort, in everything you want in a car."

From the Resurrection Comes Easter

It was foretold, it came to pass, it left an empty tomb, it makes eternal life possible, it commemorates the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. What is it? It is Easter.

Does Easter mean anything to you besides getting new clothes and going to church? Where did the words Easter come from?

The word Easter comes from the word East. East means dawn. The original festival of Easter celebrated spring, the new dawn of the year. Jesus rising from the dead is a dawn for us enabling us to have a new life in Christ.

The king in turn picked his queen. This lucky miss is Jeanne Anderson.

Be sure to watch for a story about these two lucky Juniors next issue.

After a great deal of debate, it was decided to call the prom "Exotic Isle."

Poll of Classes Show Disc-Likes

Have you ever wondered who dug up the dope for the "Top Tune" listings across the nation each week? Or, do you just beat a path to the record store on the day they are delivered?

A lot of time and effort is put forth to make up these lists. A cross-section must be taken from various mediums—TV, radio, record stores, juke boxes, etc. Their requests, sales and actual spinings are examined thoroughly. They are then recorded carefully and released in poll form. The actual research may be done on small scale or a very extensive one depending upon the locale and facilities available.

Sophs Take Class, Meet Faculty Next

Class tournaments! In the first game of the class basketball tournaments, the sophomores slapped down the freshmen. The score at the end of the regulation time was 23-23. In the overtime, the sophomores won by a score of 27-25.

In the second game, the startling sophs nipped the junior class, winners of the junior-senior game. Again the score was tied 20 all at the end of the regulation time. In the overtime, neither team scored a point and play was forced into sudden death play with free throws.

Jim Thomey and Larry Paasch came through for the sophomores and won their first class tournament.

The stupendous sophomores played the faculty on Tuesday.

MINOR AWARDS in basketball, consisting of a set of numerals, were given to Virgil Gentz, Andy Agüero, Jim Thomey, Jim Westman, Larry Paasch and Tom Birkeland who are sophomores.

Serious-Minded Sophs Have Feet on Ground

By Judy Olson

ANDY AGÜERO, sophomore class president, is a serious young man with his feet on the ground. Does a class president have a "soft" job? Now hear this! "The kids are always noisy, they're hard to control, most of them usually don't cooperate unless the teacher is present." Andy softened his last comment with, "They do cooperate when there's something interesting to discuss."

THE QUESTION was, "How do you think class dues should be paid?" You know the problem—to pay or not to pay. Andy firmly replied, "with money!"

Faculty, take note. The Soph president suggests, "We ought to have a driver's education and an auto mechanics course in this school." Also, "I don't think we should have a home room period—it's just a waste of time."

This dark-eyed basketball player is one of the most conscientious boys in school. The Sophomore Class is in capable hands.

Andy is a football-basketball-track fan. His subjects: biology, geometry, English, and industrial arts. After graduation he plans to join the air force—"probably." What does Andy think of girls? "They're necessary for boys!" Girls, he's a bachelor.

Carol Schultz

Sophomore class treasurer? Why, Carol Schultz, of course. And just what does a treasurer do? In her own words, "keep the records straight, collect money for dances, etc., collect bills, and collect dues."

Her biggest problem is, "getting the kids to pay their dues." Carol considers the greater part of the soph class cooperative. "There are always a few that wait till last," she smiled.

CAROL'S SUBJECTS include Spanish I, biology, English, and typing. Her favorite sports are swimming and skating. What does madam treasurer think of boys? "That's a good question—I decline to answer."

If ever you want a person to listen to your jokes (no matter how "corny"), Carol is your girl—she'll laugh, too. As good-natured and friendly as she is, Carol gets quite disgusted with "the way kids take an attitude about chorus. Especially the boys! They just say, 'I can't sing.' 'Honestly boys, the chorus really needs you,' she says.

I WAS GOING to college, but I don't think I will. I really don't know what I'm going to do," was Carol's reply to the query, what will you do after graduation? What-ever she does, more than one person will vouch for her success in the world. Carol is a "go-getter."

'Crack of the Bat' Hints Baseball Season Opening

Spring is here, and so is the "crack of the bat"—smack of the ball hitting soft leather—"cheers of the crowd"—"green of the grass on the baseball diamond." The baseball season is upon us.

Every day now for the past week or more, the gym has been in an uproar. Baseballs are flying swiftly on either side of the gym, and the guys who throw them are suffering from sore muscles with glad dreams of the victories ahead.

APPROXIMATELY 40 boys will compete for positions on this year's baseball team. The returning lettermen of last year are:

Gary Doerflinger, Dee Davis, Fred Lentz, Dave Willems, Dave Ellis (captain of this year's team), Dave Erickson, Ron Yates, Gene Schulz, Wayne Remus, and Ken Muhlenbeck.

To the graduating class of last year Central lost six experienced players: Ray Ellis, Rich Skora, and Dick Weber, all 4 year lettermen; Ron Nelson, a 3 year letterman; Ray Lubkeman and Dave Westman, both 2 year lettermen.

Girls Give Guys Good Going Over

Fellows as they are forming casual friendships—especially those "special" friendships—may have wondered what the girls expect of a guy on a date, or just any time. For those of you who are, here are a few pointers:

1. Many girls dream of a tall, dark and handsome man, but you needn't worry if you're not "tall, dark and handsome." Be neat and clean. Nobody likes a sloppy joe.
2. Why not be a sincere person and live a clean, Christian life?
3. Always show the best side of your personality. Is it all good? Well, so much the better. But most of all we have a few weak points which aren't quite up to par while using those good ones.

REMEMBER YOUR manners. It is said that "little things go a long way with girls." It is true. Such little things as opening doors, helping to be seated, carrying books, walking on the outside of the side walk and other things that make a girl feel like a lady and the fellow like a gentleman, mean a lot.

5. A girl always likes to know what a fellow has planned for a date she has accepted so she can dress properly.

6. Girls like boys with lots of initiative, not to the point of being aggressive but who express themselves and take the lead in activities.

7. MOST GIRLS like fellows who are independent, now don't get us wrong, we don't mean the "hard to get" type, but one who can "take them or leave them."

8. You don't have to be a "Mr. Personality 1959" but work on learning how to make a girl have a good time and feel at ease.

9. A fellow who is a "stick in the mud" is not enjoyable company for anyone. Be a good conversationalist.

10. Above all—be yourself!

PMA Will Try To Change Price Formula In Milk-To-Chicago Order

A new and intensive effort to change the pricing formula in Federal Order 41 so as to improve prices paid dairy farmers who supply milk for the Chicago market will be made by Pure Milk Assn. in keeping with a resolution adopted at the Association's 34th annual meeting in Chicago last week.

Passage of the resolution was applauded by more than 1,700 PMA members and delegates from Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan in attendance. The resolution recommends a new pricing formula be sought which would base the price of Class I milk, 3.5% butterfat test, on economic factors such as percentages of the costs of steel, labor, corn in Chicago, and soybean oil meal, and bring it up to $4.50 per cwt.

THIS NEW-TYPE formula is based on University of Illinois conclusions that a dairy herd must return $2 for every $1 worth of feed and upon Illinois Farm Bureau-Farm Management records. The present formula in Order 41 is based on manufactured milk and farmers object that it barely returns them the cost of producing milk.

The membership also went on record as opposed to legislation to pay dairy farmers a direct subsidy and in favor of enacting a self-help type program for the dairy industry.

PMA General Manager A. L. McWilliams related how Pure Milk Assn. had tried last spring to get the Chicago Federal order amended "to raise producer prices somewhat like some of the eastern markets have been able to do." The effort was frustrated, he said, by the persistence of Secretary of Agriculture Benson and his associates in prescribing "horse and buggy" methods for pricing milk in this area.

IN REGARD TO Association achievements in 1958, McWilliams said:

"Last December we negotiated a super pool which should bring Chicago market dairy farmers over $5 million in additional income in 1959. This super pool was possible because you people in Pure Milk Association had the foresight to establish plant operations which gave you bargaining power. Without them, the super pool would not have been possible."

He reported that PMA paid out $625,000 in bulk tank premiums last year and estimated that farmers in PMA territory received $3 1/2 million in bulk premiums as a result.

Presentations were made in recognition of the long services to agriculture performed by Walter E. Winn, retiring PMA president, Richmond, and H. C. Klett, retiring director of PMA District 13, Joliet.

WINN HAS BEEN a member of Pure Milk Association since its beginning in 1926, a director of district 6 since 1935, treasurer from 1942 to 1951, and president since that time. Klett served as a PMA director for 22 years, and as treasurer for several years.

Among nominees for district director were: Daniel Pierce, Rt. 1, Edgerton, Wis., Dist. 1; John H. Hopkins, Rt. 2, Delavan, Wis., Dist. 3; Walter Kirchner, Rt. 1, Garden Prairie, Ill., dist. 5; and Avery Vose, Rt. 2, Antioch, Ill., dist. 6.

Kirchner was newly elected. Vose had been director of dist. 7.

WINN, IN HIS address, commented that one of the principal criticisms leveled at the Self-Help

Dairy Stabilization bill last year was that the increased price would have ruined our sales.

"This talk of pricing ourselves out of our market is getting tiresome," he said. "The farm price of milk is lower than 12 years ago while consumer income has almost doubled. If $6.50 milk is a fair producer price in New England, $4.50 milk would be most reasonable in Chicago where workers' wages are the highest in the nation."

Got way down in there Elmer, I know I hid my Antioch News. So you wouldn't go clipping it.

Property Tax Bills Up 125 Percent In 58

Property tax bills paid in Illinois in 1958 are approximately 125 percent higher than those paid in 1948, but the bills to be paid in 1960 will be considerably higher if all the proposals before the current session of the General Assembly to remove present tax rate limits, without voter approval, become law, says the Taxpayers' Federation.

Practically everyone lives in a township or road district, and a part of his property taxes is spent for local road purposes. But this portion of his tax bill will be higher in the future without his having a say-so if House Bills 293 and 294 become law. These bills give an automatic increase in the road and bridge fund rates without referendum.

TWO YEARS AGO the General Assembly gave counties under 10,000 population the authority to increase by resolution the tax rate for county corporate fund purposes for a 2-year period to not to exceed 20c per $100 valuation. The counties affected by the legislation were considerably under the 20c limit before this law was enacted. The door was left slightly ajar in 1957 and an attempt is being made now to open it farther. Under the provisions of House Bills 172 and 173, counties under 15,000 population could have taxing power not to exceed 20c for their corporate fund. The bill in 1957, according to the 1950 census, increased taxing power in 13 counties without referendum, but House Bills 172 and 173 would affect 11 more counties, 24 in all.

Closely related to the above is House Bill 456, which removes river conservancy districts from their present rate ceiling and gives them an automatic increase in taxing power.

Under the tax rate limitation law passed by the General Assembly in 1951, local governments can have the increases in rates provided by the above legislation by referendum. Those who are governed have a right to this expression. Let the people decide, the Federation says.

35 At Sunday Bridal Party For Marge Jehlik

By Mrs. Earl Beese
Grass Lake Correspondent

Last Sunday afternoon at Smart's Country House, a bridal shower and luncheon was given for Marge Jehlik, of Riverside, Ill., who is the fiancée of Charles Kempf, Jr., of Petite Lake. The shower was given by his aunt and cousin, Mrs. Wehmhoefer and Mrs. Watson, both of Chicago.

There were 35 persons present, and the bride-to-be received some lovely gifts, but most precious was a picture of Charles given her by his father. Charles is presently stationed with the U. S. Army in Alaska. He will be home in about a week. The wedding is to be on April 4 at St. Mary's Church in Riverside. The couple will then return to Alaska where he will finish his service with the Army.

(written for week of March 19)
Gary Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Severin Martin of Indian Point, celebrated his seventh birthday with five of his first grade classmates from Grass Lake School, on Thursday, March 12. Among his gifts he received a wristwatch as he has been able to tell time for several months. He says he feels grown up wearing it. The youngsters played games, and refreshments were served and "gobbled up" as small fry usually do.

Mrs. Marian Martin also informs us that she received a letter from Mrs. Frederick Sommer who is vacationing near Fort Meyer, Fla. Mrs. Sommer reports that it is 86 in the shade and they can fish each day and catch a satisfactory amount.

After this snowy, blowy, winter a thought of 86 degrees seems like a beautiful dream. A lady Marian spoke to the other day said she thought she saw a robin in her yard, but she got out the binoculars just to make sure.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muller of Petite Lake are beginning to think that their nephew shouldn't come to visit them at all. Betty reports that while he was at their house over the weekend he fell and cut his head in the back. The last time he was there he broke his collar bone, so you can hardly blame them for thinking he ought to stay away for a while.

The Herb Meyers, the Bob Harts and the Lester Hribar families braved the severe weather conditions a week ago Friday to attend the Sports show at the Amphitheatre in Chicago. They said it was worth the trip and that a good time was had by all the families.

Usually we are hearing that the community is growing, but the latest report from the Grass Lake School is that five children have transferred out in the past week or so. Rather an unusual situation, when most places they have to worry about overcrowding.

Charlotte and Clyde Queen of Indian Point finally took down their Christmas lights for the season. They have been getting lots of ribbing about them still being up, but with weather conditions having been what they were, they really didn't look out of place at all. Well, maybe now Spring will arrive!

Annual Report Of The Village Of Lindenhurst, Illinois

Know Your Village And How It Works

May I take this opportunity on the part of the members of the board and myself, to once again greet the "older" residents and welcome all the new people who have moved here since the last election.

Our village is getting larger each year, and it is getting more difficult to get to know everyone as they move in. This problem has occupied considerable time in the minds of the trustees the last few months, and the outcome of their thinking was this little magazine. It is hoped that through this medium we will be able to outline, by the use of column and illustrations, the general workings of your local government, and introduce you to the people responsible for its operation.

As you can see, each committee has a report on the functions and progress of its own group, and so that there will not be a duplication of work, I will confine the rest of my article to a general outline of your government, and the position I occupy as President of the Village.

Your village government consists of a President, six Trustees, Village Clerk and Police Magistrate, which are all elective offices, with a term of four years. They are elected at large by the people residing within the confines of the village and presently serve without pay. Any resident may run for office as long as he is over 21 and a resident for more than one year.

Besides the elected officials, the President with the advice and consent of the Board of Trustees, must appoint people to fill the additional offices of Village Attorney, Building Inspector, Health Officer, Village Marshal, Supt. of Public Works, Treasurer, Village Engineer and Planning Commission. These positions are generally held for a period of one year, unless otherwise provided by ordinance.

It is the duty of the President to perform all such duties as may be required by statute or ordinance, and to correlate the activities of the various committees in performing their functions in the village. He also presides at all regular and special meetings of the board, and in this capacity is responsible for bringing before the board all matters which he feels should be discussed, and assigns these problems to the various committees for further study if necessary. It is the responsibility of the President to represent the village in all dealings with the county, state and other municipalities, and to convey to these governments the wishes of the people of the village.

I hope that the above information has been sufficiently descriptive to enable you to get a general idea of the nature of my job, and hope that the other articles and illustrations in the magazine also prove to be helpful.

The regular meetings of the board are held on the second Monday of each month, and anyone who is interested in helping the village, or just plain curious, is always welcome to attend.

Robert Randall
Village President

From the President right down to local officials, it is important that government be shared with those who support it through payment of taxes.

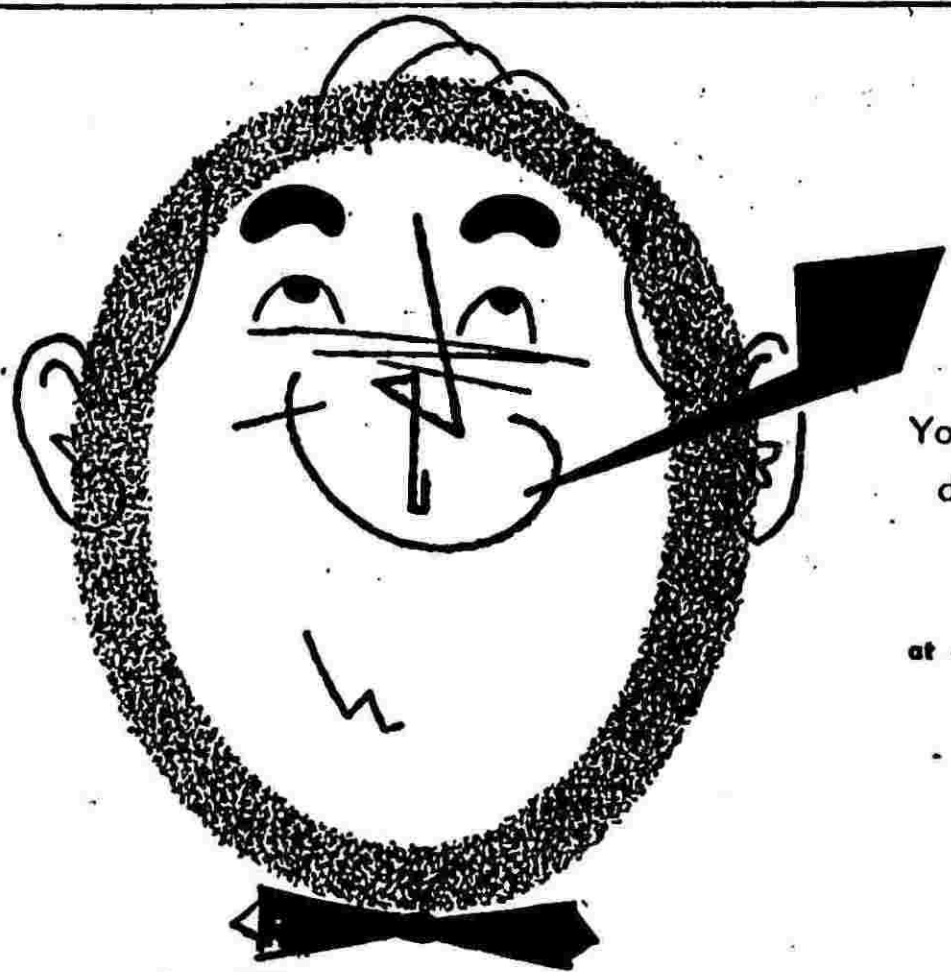

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the people of Lindenhurst for making their government statistics and happenings available to its citizens in a report like this.

You, as well as we, participate in government in one form or another.—it is a part of your life and . . .

5,000 Population Community Planned

WHEN Lindenhurst reaches a population of 5,000 is problematical but THAT it will is a fact. The very beginning of the Village was on the faith of the future of suburban Chicagoland and as the area grows, so will the village—only maybe a little faster if it is a much more desirable place in which to live.

Orderly growth is the best growth and that is the purpose of the Lindenhurst Planning Commission. The commission was organized in October, 1957, to write a master plan for the orderly expansion of the community.

To do this, a population estimate must be the point around which the commission works. That 5,000 was chosen is no accident for it was by estimations of past growth of the area in northwest Chicagoland that the figure was chosen. It appears to be a little liberal—but not much. The planning commission estimates that population will be reached by 1967.

Included in the master plan for growth to this figure are recommendations for immediate house numbering system; a post office for the village and street lighting program.

At present the village does not own its own water system and there is no sanitary sewer system. These two public health problems have been investigated and it is the recommendation that complete reports should be completed by Jan. 1, 1961 on the water system; and January 1, 1960 on the sewer system.

The planning commission also recommends that roads be brought up to all-weather status as soon as possible and that all future annexations and plats in the village contain all-weather roads.

Among other things which the five-member plan board recommends are:

A municipal building as soon as can be financed, centrally located, and a center for village business.

Introduction of light industry into the village limits to help with the tax burden and to provide employment. The nature of the village would not be conducive to any but light industry.

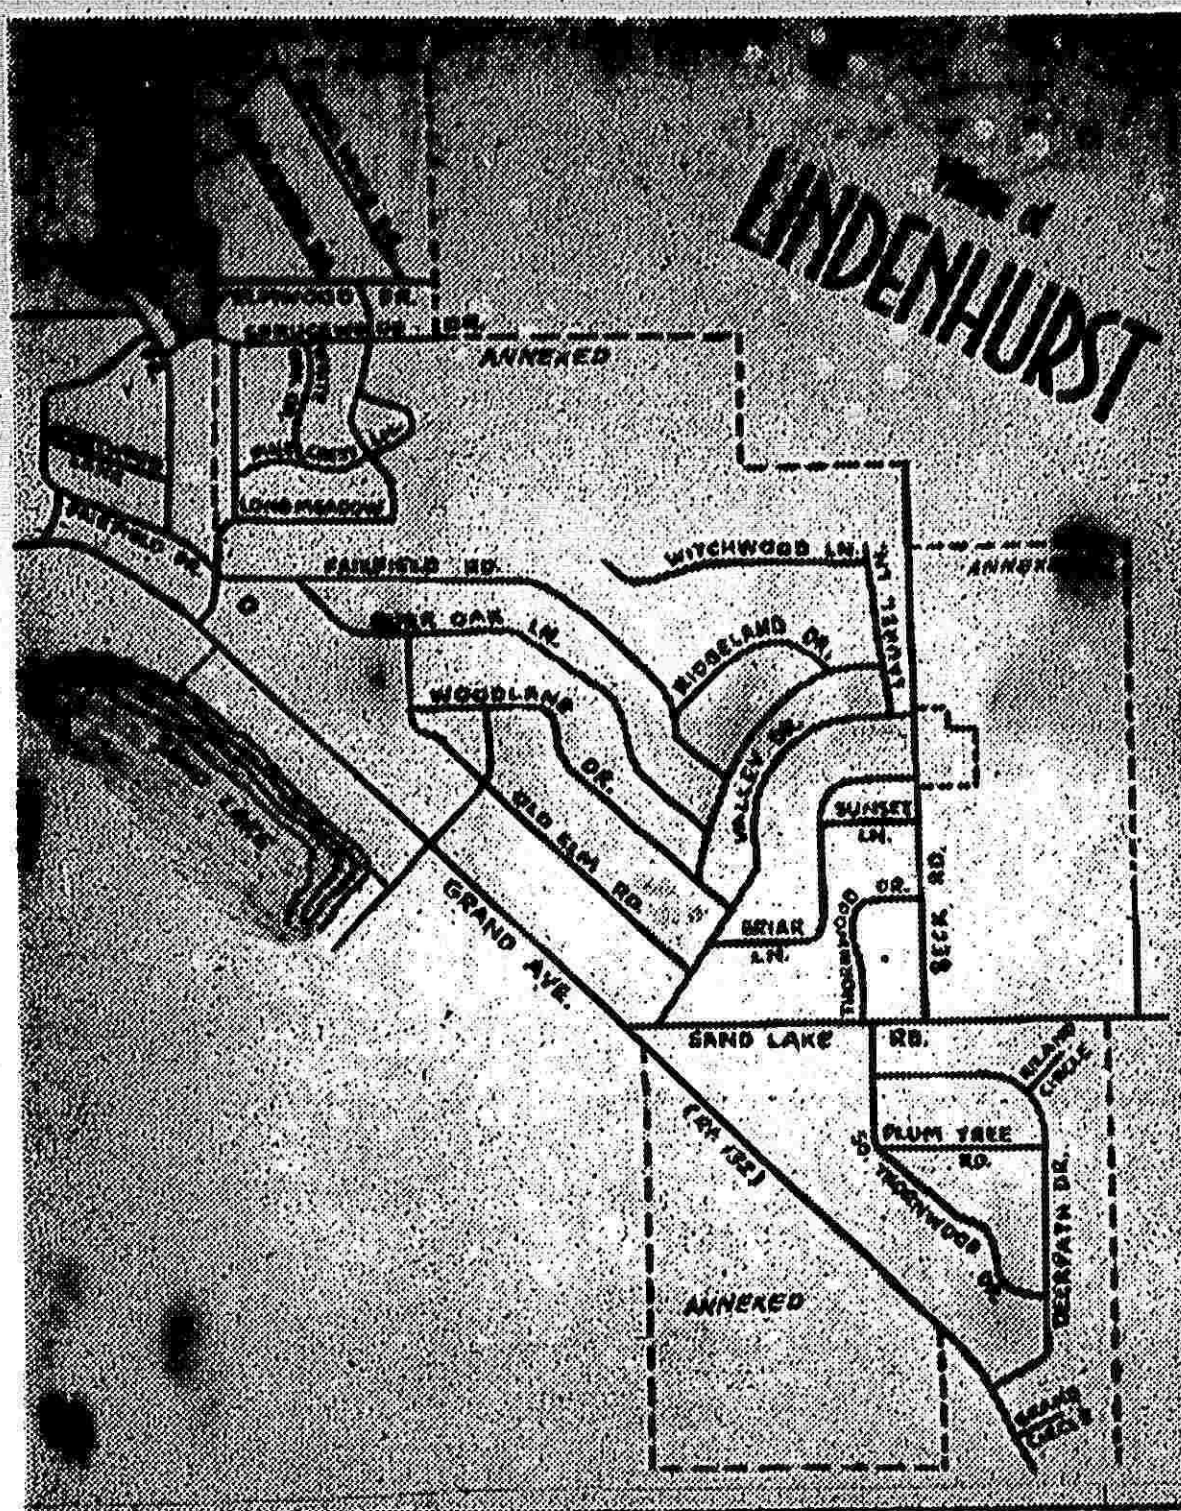

No lot size be less than 9,000 square feet for proper sanitary and living conditions. The original village plats contained lots no smaller than this and it is felt that any deviation will depreciate present property values;

Parks, playgrounds and recreational areas be established. At present Willow Park is being considered and the commission urges a beach be opened on Sand Lake. Any future annexations must include provisions of land suitable for recreation.

Schools and churches be established in the village limits. At present a grade school is completing its first year of classes but the commission urges every effort be made to include a junior high or a high school here as population growth warrants it. Churches should be attracted also.

Members of the planning commission at present are: Martin Larsen, chairman; Mrs. Craig Henderson, secretary; Robert Filwett, Harold Behrendt and Robert Randall. The latter member, also the village president, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Henry Ploss who died suddenly in January, 1959.

THIS IS LINDENHURST . . . The village where more than 1,000 people have found pleasant living in the last two years. Estimates place the population in the next five years at 5,000.

Money—where does it come from and where does it go?

These are questions which most residents know little about except to quip that any government takes too much from the people and spends too much needlessly.

A new village like Lindenhurst, starting off with nothing in the cash balance side of the ledger, has a particularly hard time getting all the things it needs on the money available.

Therefore a strict budget system is necessary and it has been my job to head the committee in drawing up an accurate budget and keep strict books on income and outgo during each year.

At the beginning of each fiscal year, a budget for the year is prepared by the finance committee and submitted to the board of trustees for approval. The amount of money that will come into the village treasury is estimated, and a portion of this money is set aside for each expense that is expected during the year. The committee and the village treasurer must watch that no more money is spent than has been budgeted.

Every two years the books are audited to insure the people that the books have been carefully kept and all of the village money goes where it should.

Largest income to the Village each year is about $5,000 from property taxes. Actually, the village receives only about 10 percent of each homeowner's tax bill. Most of the rest goes into schools, with the censes, dog licenses, peddler licenses and sales tax. When the shopping center is completed on Grand Ave., income from sales tax will be greatly increased and Lindenhurst will be able to undertake new projects that have been held back for lack of funds.

Here's the distribution of all your tax money. The difference occurs because of higher high school tax levy for Unit 18.

A special source of income comes from state motor fuel taxes. Expenditure of this money is closely controlled by the Illinois State Highway Dept., and can be used only on state-approved road improvement projects. This money amounts to about $500 per month and must be kept in a special bank account. At present we are saving a portion of this money until there is enough to begin hard-surfacing roads.

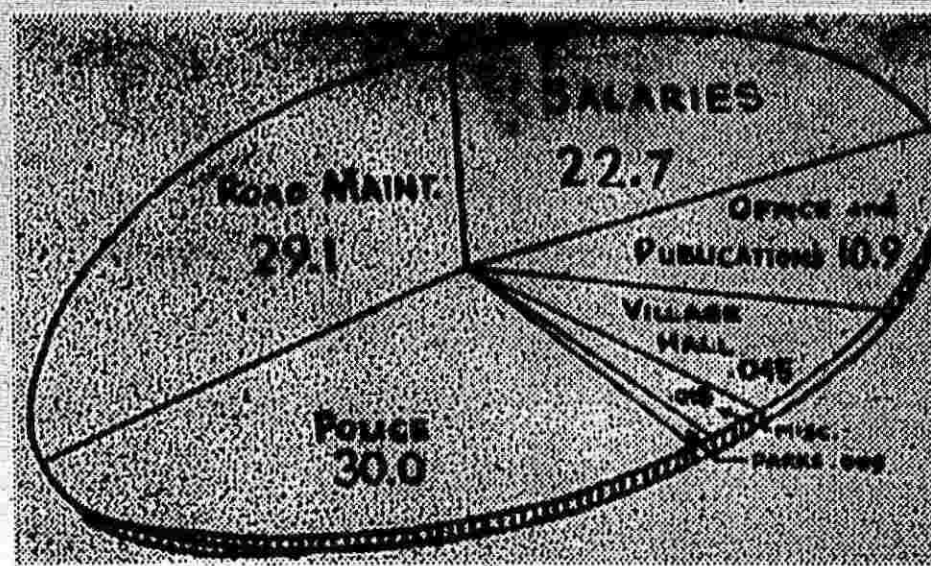

Take special note of the summary of village income and expenses for the year here and note the proper expenditures and budgeting.

Under the expert guidance of the village attorney, a firm foundation and framework to expand and grow has been enacted. Up to date, the ordinances enacted have taken care of most of situations that have come up.

Times have a way of changing and different needs become apparent, so that looking back two years, it can be said this committee will always be in a state of flux, just finishing an ordinance to cover one situation and another situation comes up.

All our ordinances apply to the present and we hope adequate for some time to come.

We are pleased especially that we already have ordinances and codes in effect that

Roads Have Improved

BY TED BRENDEN

When the Village of Lindenhurst incorporated in the fall of 1956, it assumed the responsibility of all its roads. They were in deplorable condition. Lack of gravel, soil erosion, dire need of ditching and a considerable amount of damaged and unusable culvert pipe. The latter being responsible for a few areas to be under water almost constantly.

Since then a great amount of gravel was put on the roads; ditching done that was most important, all new culvert pipe to replace those unusable. Also last summer we had the 4 1/2 miles of gravel roads oiled to reduce the nuisance of dust and maintain the gravel and cut the expense of road grading; to bring up all the roads to top condition will take time and expense. Work at the present time has to be done piece-meal until finances permit full scale improvements.

The thorn in the side the past two winters was the vast amount of snow fall and drifting we had. Snow and ice control has proven to be expensive. The money derived from the vehicle tax stickers barely made the expenses of snow removal.

Future plans are to bring up all gravel roads to A-3 to conform with the remainder of the village. Gravel roads are a constant drain on finances. Ditching will be done throughout the village to facilitate proper and orderly distribution of water. Also a problem are those areas affected by soil erosion. During the time of year when the elements of weather prevail, there will be no parking of vehicles on the roads. There is now in effect an ordinance prohibiting street parking. This ordinance provides a penalty. By abiding with this ordinance a more orderly and efficient snow removal job can be had, with less cost to us.

Lighting was installed at all entrances leading into the village from Grand Avenue. All lights were placed in the B. J. Hooper School area. The cost is very nominal, in fact it amounts to approximately $25 per month. The charge is for rental of equipment, no charge for electricity. Future plans are in the final stages to install street lighting throughout the village. It will help to reduce the hazards and perils of night driving, and aid the police department to safeguard the public and personal property more effectively.

Stop, Warning, Speed, and School signs were posted at all roads around the B. J. Hooper School area and all roads leading out to Grand Avenue. Additional speed and designation signs will be placed throughout the village very shortly.

Police Magistrate Is Village's Own Judge

By Raymond D. Caldwell

The duties of the Police Magistrate Court is explained in the hope that the citizens of this and other communities will have a better understanding of the office.

The Police Magistrate as the justice of the peace, is an elective office and was established under Illinois Statutes to provide smaller cities and villages with a local court. The office was established in 1897 and the Magistrate is elected for a four year term. He is bonded to the State of Illinois for a sum ranging between $2,000 and $10,000 guaranteeing his proper conduct and honesty while in office.

JURISDICTION:

The magistrate has a wide jurisdiction throughout the county in which he is elected and he covers such subjects as actions arising on contracts, for damages to personal property, for rent and distress for rent, against railroad companies, of replevin when the property claimed does not exceed $1,000, for damages for fraud in the sale, purchase or exchange of personal property, Dram Shop Act, recovery of fines or penalties, to assess damages for sheep killing by dogs, of forcible entry and detainer, and for acts of trespass.

He has jurisdiction in cases of misdemeanor when the punishment does not exceed a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for up to one year and such other jurisdiction as has been conferred by laws of this state.

PROCEDURE:

The wheels of the Magistrate's Court are set in motion with the filing of a sworn complaint by an individual charging a person or persons with a violation of a state law or a local ordinance. If the complaint is signed by an individual against a person residing outside the village limits, the Magistrate may issue a warrant for the person's arrest and issue it to a constable for service.

The defendant may plead guilty or not guilty, may ask for a continuance or for a change of venue, which is a request to have his case tried in another court, or he may ask for a jury trial. The Magistrate has the right to impanel a jury to hear such cases. Upon completion of the trial, the Magistrate may pass judgment and may assess a fine in accordance with the statute. He is authorized to assess court costs to cover the court operation, constable and jury fee. The schedule of court costs is established by state statute. In the event a person is arrested for a misdemeanor and the trial cannot be held for a period of time the accused is released on good and sufficient bail or bond, with the amount set by the Magistrate and held by him as security guaranteeing the appearance of the accused in court.

REPORTS:

The Magistrate must file, under oath, on or before the 15th of each month, a report of all fines, forfeitures and penalties collected with the State's Attorney and in Lindenhurst with the Village Board. He must maintain a docket containing a full report of all actions, cases heard, fines and costs assessed and sentences imposed.

The docket is a public record and is available for inspection to qualified persons. The fines are turned over to the village treasurer at the end of each month and are deposited in the village's general fund.

The Magistrate has freedom of judgment in his decisions on all cases. If the accused is found not guilty, the costs of the trial may be assessed against the village or the plaintiff in the case. As far as court costs are concerned, it makes no difference to the Magistrate whether he finds the accused guilty or not guilty. He is bound only by his conscience and honor to decide the case in accordance with the evidence presented to him. All in all it is a position of great responsibility and honor.

SUNDAY was always sort of lonesome and dull for Peabody. Back when he was young he was THE most highly regarded eligible beau. The ladies would run their fingers through his hair — that's how he got bald — and Peabody was in his glory. But our friend forgot to put a few dollars away for the rainy day. Now he eats milk and crackers three times a day because he's a good man and doesn't want to sponge off anybody. Be sure you save some of your money. Save at HOME at the Lake Villa Trust and Savings Bank where things are "changing".

KEYS TO THE new police patrol car are handed to Police Commissioner John Slove by President Robert Randall. The new car keeps Lindenhurst's volunteer police force one of the best equipped anywhere.

Police Dept. is Well Equipped

By John Slove

After the incorporation of Lindenhurst in the fall of 1957, committees were formed within the village government, one of these being the Police and Fire Committee, which began with rapid action.

With untiring effort, a new 1958 police car became village property. This was accomplished by the kind contributions by the contractors serving the Village and also the support of residents who attended the Policemen's Ball, held each year.

The Police Department consists of the following personnel:

Village Marshal, Fred Beller; Captain, Warren Frontzak; Patrolmen Charles Pawlowski, Ronald Coles, August Matthies, Marvin Schultz, John Selzer, Robert McClelland, Bill Kaub, Rick Van Voures, and Mike Fidanzo. Police Matrons, Mrs. A. Matthies, Mrs. R. McClelland, Mrs. J. Selzer.

The Police Department is fully uniformed and equipped. And the police car is also equipped with a most modern two-way county radio hook-up, riot gun, first aid, fire extinguisher, emergency flares, etc. Also this department is completely covered to the utmost with insurance.

The Police Dept. patrols our area throughout the week and puts in endless hours of volunteer time. It has curtailed the nuisance of dogs, also there has been considerable drag racing and parking in the wee hours in remote areas of the Village, of which there is no such evidence any more.

The Police Department is evident as a necessity to provide the protection and welfare of its residents. The Police Department has attended all schools that were available and schooling of any sort in police work is always sought.

Clerk Is Village Secretary

Rae Gibbons

BY RAE GIBBONS

The function of this office is the keeping of all records pertaining to the Village, i. e., correspondence, keeping track of vital statistics and the mass of paper work connected with the running of an election.

Taking the minutes of the board meetings. The latter have been compiled into one standard minute book which is available to the public; issuing of car stickers, dog licenses; permits to solicit in the Village; the licensing of outside firms who conduct business here in the Village.

In short, all detail work so necessary for organization to function on a business-like basis.

The Board recently approved the office of Deputy Village Clerk to make it more convenient for the people who use this office to transact Village business. The hours of business are 7-9 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays, and for the period of issuing car stickers, Saturday, 1 to 4 p. m.

There is now in the process of making a card file index of the Village ordinances. That will give a summary of the ordinance, which will enable any interested person to check on any ordinance, without having to wade through many legal terms that might be confusing.

All these combined give the Village a business like appearance and make for swifter service for the public.

Housekeeping

Rhonda Sanders

The Building and Grounds Committee is essentially devoted to the planning and housekeeping of all property owned by the Village — Public Parks, Public Buildings, and the maintenance of them, also the responsibility of equipping and staffing the buildings necessary to the operation of them.

We have drawn up proposed plans for the formation of Willow Park as soon as funds are available. Willow Park is located at the northwest section of the Village. Mr. Alfred Sokolies, a village resident and a landscaper, offered to direct volunteer help in planting seedlings for future use in this Park area, as well as in another area which we hope to develop in the future.

Another project that has been the responsibility of our Committee is weed cutting. Weed cutting should not be an expense of home owners in Lindenhurst, so therefore, the Village Board has seen fit to assess by ordinance each vacant lot owner $5.00 yearly to help defray the cost of cutting weeds on their property. Mr.

Engle kindly offered the use of his equipment so that the additional cost over and above the amount collected from vacant lot owners would not have to be assumed by the Village. In other words, weed cutting has been done through the efforts of this Committee at no cost to any home owner.

As you all know, the building which is being used as a Village Hall, Village Clerk's Office, and Police Court has been given to us to use temporarily until such time as funds permit us to erect a building which will be owned by the Village. Plans have already been drawn up and are open for inspection so that when funds are available at a future date, the matter may be acted upon.

During the past few months this Committee supervised the purchase of filing cabinets for the various department heads, namely, Police Chief, Building Inspector, Village Clerk, and Police Magistrate. These of course were necessary for efficient operation of these departments.

One of the main points in our last pre-election platform was to push for the erection of a shopping center. IT IS NOW DEFINITE THAT AN EARLY START WILL BE MADE ON LINDENHURST SHOPPING PLAZA. A great deal has been accomplished in the past year and many leases have been signed. We hope to be able to release very shortly the names and types of businesses which will be located in the Shopping Plaza.

Sewer System Will Solve Sewage Problems

Paul Hunt

The Sewer and Water Committee has undertaken a study of sewage disposal problems existing in the village. Several immediate problems in certain critical areas of the village have been met and temporary solutions applied with success.

The only real solution is, of course, a village-wide system of sanitary sewers and a treatment plant. The committee is proceeding with the study of various types of disposal plants, their suitability in in this area, and costs.

The Village has acquired at no cost a 20 acre site in Unit 20 from Morton Engle. This site is ideally situated for a treatment plant.

The committee is also studying the feasibility of purchasing the Lindenhurst Water Co. which is at present a privately owned company.
